

NEW PASTOR FOR MARSHALL'S STREET

Rev. J. T. Hundley Asked to Take Charge—Changes in Other Pulpits.

Rev. J. T. Hundley, of Gettysburg, Pa., has been called to the pastorate of the Marshall-St. Church of this city, to succeed Rev. Harry Minick, who resigned some time ago.

The action by the church was taken at a congregational meeting held Sunday afternoon at 7 o'clock. The Rev. J. T. Hundley was called by unanimous vote of the church.

The Marshall-St. people are strong in the hope that the call will be accepted. Mr. Hundley has been very successful in his pastoral work, and is a graduate of Kentucky University and a young man of splendid abilities. He made himself well known to Richmond people by one of the best addresses delivered at the last Disciples' Convention.

It is the desire of the congregation to have a pastor by February 15th, the date of the departure of Mr. Minick. Supposing Mr. Hundley to accept, he will be asked to begin his work at that time, and in the event that this arrangement cannot be made Rev. C. P. Williams, of Atlanta, will supply the pulpit during the interim.

ACCEPTS THE CALL.

Rev. W. S. Leake, of Petersburg, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Rev. B. Cabell Hening.

Mr. Leake has decided to accept the call extended to him last week by the congregation of Fulton Baptist Church of this city, and has resigned charge of the West-End Baptist Church of Petersburg to that effect.

His resignation has not yet been accepted, but probably will be so soon as possible, and the 1st of February has been suggested as a likely date of his arrival.

Rev. E. S. Tuttle has accepted the call extended to him some time ago by the Randolph-St. Baptist Church of this city, and will take up his work here on January 15th.

A letter from Mr. Tuttle was read to a business meeting of the church, held Sunday afternoon at 7 o'clock. In it he stated that he had decided to accept the call, and that, in compliance with the request of the committee, he would enter upon his duties at the time named.

At a meeting of the church, held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the resignation of Rev. J. R. Harrison, pastor of the church, was formally accepted.

A committee, with Mr. S. B. Woodfin as chairman, was appointed to recommend a new pastor.

CAN'T BE HERE.

Arrangements have not yet been fully completed for the exercises incident to the dedication of the Grace-St. Baptist Church, which will take place next Sunday. Dr. W. W. Landrum, of Atlanta, Ga., will be unable to be present, and upon the pressing request of the committee appointed to arrange for the service, Dr. W. E. Hatcher has consented to preach the dedicatory sermon.

At the meeting of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association yesterday morning, arrangements were made for the observance of the week of prayer, beginning next Sunday, as follows:

Sunday night—A joint communion service at the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Russell Cecil to make the address.

Monday night—Meeting at the Third Church. Rev. J. Calvin Stewart to make the address.

Tuesday night—At Hoge Memorial Church. Rev. D. K. Walthall to make the address.

Wednesday—Second Church, address by Rev. E. W. Witherspoon, D. D.

Thursday—Grace-St. Church, Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., to make the address.

Friday—Church of the Covenant, address by Rev. A. H. Kipp.

It was decided to use the subjects suggested by the Evangelical Alliance. The pastor in each case is to have charge of the meeting in his church, and the whole service is to be brought within an hour. There is to be but one address at each meeting, and that is to be limited to twenty minutes.

Rev. C. W. Campbell, D. D., of Charleston, W. Va., and Rev. E. P. Pell, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., were present and were invited to sit as corresponding members. Dr. Pell made an interesting address on Christian Education.

Rev. Dr. Strange, the new rector of St. Paul's Church, was at the Episcopal Clericus yesterday morning and was elected a member of the body.

Dr. Strange is an old friend of many of the ministers and was warmly welcomed by them. He has been entirely recovered from his recent attack.

Rev. Preston Nash, of Christ Episcopal Church, has organized a quartette with cornet and violin accompaniment, for service every Sunday afternoon at the church at 4 o'clock.

The presentation address was made by Mr. Berry Stainback in an admirable manner, and was gracefully replied to by Mr. McKinnon.

Rev. G. E. Smith, of this city, preached Sunday morning at Willis Church, Henrico, for Dr. J. Powell Garland, presiding elder, who was painfully burned about two weeks ago and who was unable to deliver the address on the large gathering, a fitting close of the work for the year on the last Sabbath of the century.

Social Life at Toano.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

TOANO, VA., December 31.—A most enjoyable entertainment was given last night at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Richardson. Those present were: Mrs. H. L. Richardson, Miss Kittle Taylor, with Mr. L. M. Shipman; Miss Alice Hankins with Mr. L. M. Shipman; Mrs. Annie Hankins with Mr. E. G. Giddy; Miss Annie Wright with Mr. Woodson Richardson; Miss Annie Vaddill with Hamilton Richardson.

Quick adjustment of losses made easy by insuring with the Virginia State. No waiting.

W. W. HARDWICK, Agent.

ardson, of Hampton; Miss Lucy Jennings with Mr. L. G. Bentley; Mrs. G. B. James, of Newport News.

Charming music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. T. Richardson, after which the assembly was entertained by several recitations, solos, quartettes, etc. At 11:30 P. M. an elegant supper was served in the brilliantly-lighted and beautifully-decorated dining-room, which was very much enjoyed by all present.

At 12:30 A. M. all left for home, and professed themselves as having been highly entertained by their hostess, Miss N. H. Richardson.

The Beahm Case.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

MANASSAS, VA., Dec. 31.—A special term of the Circuit Court was convened here Saturday to hear the argument for a new trial in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Rev. J. C. Beahm. Judge Charles E. Nicol invited Judge Thomas W. Harrison, of Winchester, to preside. Judge Harrison to-day decided that the indictment was defective, and the verdict was set aside. The indictment was copied from Hunt's forms and used the words chastity and virtue, which were not sufficient to subscribe the offense under the statute. The proper words should have been previous chaste character.

Killed by a Freight Train.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

COVINGTON, VA., Dec. 31.—Joe Adams, a colored youth, was killed last night here while attempting to steal a ride on a swiftly moving freight.

HANDSOME PRESENT.

Mr. I. G. West Complimented by His Associates.

Mr. I. G. West, special agent of the Standard Oil Company, Richmond branch, has accepted a handsome gold watch and chain from the Baltimore branch of the Standard Oil Company, and will take charge of that office to-morrow. Mr. West has lived in Richmond for the last twelve years, and is well known and identified as one of Richmond's leading business men.

Yesterday afternoon gathered in his office all the employees of the company in the city. Mr. R. W. Spillman acted as spokesman, and presented Mr. West with a handsome gold watch and chain, showing the appreciation and high esteem that the employees of the Richmond branch had for their retiring manager. The surprise was an agreeable one, and Mr. West responded by expressing his appreciation of the gift.

Mr. J. M. Graves, who has been Mr. West's assistant for a number of years, will act as special agent for the present.

It makes no difference what agent controls your insurance, he will give you a Virginia State Policy if you request it.
